

Seminar series 2022/23

Donald Meek and Dr John Holliday
'The Young McLaurin', the first of a three part reassessment of Dr Malcolm McLaurin (1765-1834),
Chamberlain of Tiree from 1801 to 1811

Fri 20 January @ 10:00 UK time

The Friends of the Argyll Papers are delighted to announce the next in our 2022/3 series of online seminars informed by research undertaken in the archive. This seminar will take place on Zoom.

In this seminar, Donald Meek and Dr John Holliday will discuss 'The Young McLaurin': his background in Ardchattan, his training as a doctor and his role as physician to the Campbells of Barcaldine, his move away from Ardchattan, and into factoring for Argyll Estates. This is the first of a three part reassessment of Dr Malcolm McLaurin (1765-1834), who was Chamberlain of Tiree from 1801 to 1811.

Seminars are free for members of the Friends. Non-members are welcome to attend and are invited to make a donation of £5 per seminar at <https://friendsoftheargyllpapers.enthuse.com/#/>.
