of One-Name Studies

DISCOVER WHAT WE DO

The Guild is a charitable organisation that serves to inform, educate and support individuals and groups engaged in one-name (surname) studies.

Guild members study and collect occurrences of their registered surname worldwide. Births, marriages, deaths, and census records are just the start ...

Some members reconstruct families, some conduct DNA studies. Others study the source of the name, its distribution and migration.

A one-name study can be as broad or as narrow as the researcher chooses to make it.

We already have nearly 3,000 members throughout the world, studying more than 8,000 surnames.

Are you ready to join us on your own journey of discovery?
