
Gaelic at the National Library of Scotland

From collecting the past to collecting the future

Tuesday 13 October, 6-7pm. Great Western Hotel, Oban

FREE EVENT

Join us to hear more about our collections, and for the launch of the Library's new online Gaelic rare books resource by Dr Alasdair Allan, Minister for Learning, Science and Scotland's Languages.

Dr Anette Hagan, Rare Books Curator, will introduce you to the world's largest collection of printed Gaelic items.

Jennifer Giles, General Collections Curator, will talk about the Gaelic and local material the Library collects today, from poetry pamphlets to websites and explain how you can help.
